Class Poem

They seem but short, these four past years
As looking back to those first fears,
When rigged in Freshmen greens and blues
We sought for knowledge, her first small clues.

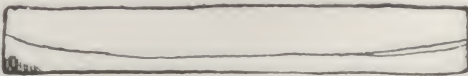

And what have here we gained since then
By dint of toil o'er book and pen?
To some, it's sure, results seemed small,
They watching grades from spring to fall.
Yet, somehow, through these trials we've come.
At length we're victors, every one.

But on beyond our booklore, still,
There came that greater added thrill;
From up, and out of depth of soul,
That power to check, and just control
All thoughts and deeds that could not fill
The major count, "For West I Will."

We hope we've shown in every sport
On cinder path, gridiron, or court,
The best, the truest sportsmanship;
All else restrained by firmest grip,
In fact, we hope that every test
Might well have shown we did our best.

It's just one thought this verse contains;
Acknowledgement for all our gains,
To these forbearing persons, who—
Through these four years helped us to do—
Unstintingly of time they've given;
Unceasingly with us they've striven.

—Carroll Barnes.

The President's Address

Today one hundred and thirteen classmates pass from the halls of that institution which has been for them a friend, companion and instructor for four years. They face the world, which differs from all that is not "the world" in one respect—friendship. In one there are always friends willing and ready to help; in the other there are none. And in facing the world they face its responsibilities, which are neither new nor light.

The greatest challenge of the world today is the challenge of peacemaking. We have just passed through the most destructive, the most far-reaching war that was ever waged, the results of which are only too apparent. The question that vitally interests us now is the question, Will there be a next war? We are the coming generation. On us will fall the burden of the next war; on our shoulders will fall the terrible consequences of that war as it will be; or on us falls the responsibility of preventing this war.

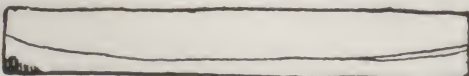

We are told that charity begins at home. Likewise peace begins at home. Therefore our first problem in world peace-making is the problem of making peace in our own land. Party strife in international concerns is most disheartening to those nations who look to us as a model. Rivalry is valuable and cannot be dispensed with, but when conflict is carried too far, it becomes a calamity.

How can world peace be brought about if nations continually distrust and fear each other? It cannot! Petty quarreling, open disfavor, and selfish greed must stop before true fellowship of nations can exist. Nations must be united in a common purpose before final world peace be accomplished.

And yet the bed-rock foundation of world peace, of all peace, moreover, is thought. No plans can be made, no propositions forwarded and no steps accomplished without earnest, concentrated, productive thought. Many times have you heard it said that education is worthless if it produces no individual thought. The object of education is to stimulate and promote original thinking. Thought accomplishes all things.

Here today are one hundred and thirteen students, who have received a comparatively high degree of education, and we pray that all of them may receive a college education. If this education, this training is successful, these students will go into the world with ambition, vigor, and knowledge, because of thought. The world offers to these people an opportunity to center their thoughts on world peace, to help solve the great problems. Not only does it offer the opportunity, it calls for volunteers, and reaches for helpers. That gate is always open and the reward, the satisfaction of work well done, is the highest of honors.

We, of this class of June, 1924, have received our education from this most powerful institution. But do we thank an institution for our training? Certainly not. We thank West High, the school that has helped and aided us in our rough journey through life. We thank a faculty whose impartial, earnest care and solicitude have won our appreciation, our good will, and our love. We will ever look back on our school days and remember our faculty. We, of this graduating class, thank the faculty for what they have done for us, but we thank our God for what they have been to us. He who rules all has given to us the privilege of attending West High, of knowing it as our Alma Mater, and of receiving our preliminary training here. We now pray to that Father above that we may forever henceforth follow the high ideals of honesty, determination and brotherhood we set for ourselves in West High.

Robert La T. Cavanaugh.

Senior Class Will

Realizing that we are about to pass from this realm of trial and tribulation into that existence from which there is no return, wishing to avoid any dissensions and to obviate all opportunities for dispute over the rich legacy of the Class of June, 1924, which has been accumulated during its industrious existence in West High School, and desiring to abide by the law, we, the Class of June '24, have unanimously voted this following to be our last Will and Testament:

WE, the Senior Class of June, 1924, being at this time of sound mind and memory, and wishing to dispose of our treasures, as seems fit, do make, publish, and declare this to be our last Will and Testament, to-wit:

To the Sophomores we wish to say that all their efforts to surpass the Juniors will be appreciated.

To the Juniors we leave our hope that some day they will become Seniors.

To Mother we leave our limited knowledge of history.

To Father we leave our gratitude for his untiring efforts with our debaters.

To Mr. Steeper we leave our thanks for his patience and forbearance.

To Mrs. Brooks and Mr. Meier we leave our ability to skip classes.

The artistic ability of Martha Jansen and Elmer Kern, we leave to any one who is brilliant enough to succeed them.

Wanda Johnston leaves her pep and a stick of dynamite to Augustus Killabrew.

Marion Van Laningham and Dana Reed bequeath their vocal talent to Hubert Babel and Joyce Johnson on condition the said young gentlemen do not excel McCormick.

Rita Walters leaves her willing helpfulness to Wilma Trapp.

The long tresses of Leona Hankhammer, Ilah Elwood, Miriam Barrum, Vega Morehouse, Helen Jackson, Dagna Carlson, Dorothy Slinker, Florence Eckert, and Sue Morgan, we leave to Ruth Patrick and Afton Powell providing they do not fall prey to the barber shop.

To Fred Norris and George Cullen we leave Bob Cavanaugh's unexcelled ability for leadership, to be divided evenly between them.

To Mabel Hanson we bestow Ruth Ungles' literary ability.

Chuck Corwin leaves his height to Dick Lee.

Howard Ungles leaves his luck to get caught when trying to skip classes to Russell Namanny.

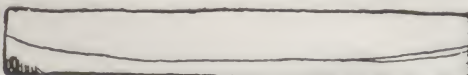

Maurice Becker, Milton Cohen, Ronald Linn, Glenn Roy, and Margaret Orebaugh distribute their dramatic talent to the next Senior play cast.

To any one who is fortunate enough to qualify, we bestow Dillon Hamilton's leadership and popularity.

Roger Herriott, Frederick Craig and Roland Gibson bequeath their silver tongues to the next year's debating team and future debating teams.

We leave to Jack Barnes the all around athletic ability of Don Smith.

Clyde Clark leaves his Valentino sideburns to Roha'd Shearer.

Martha Peairs leaves her quiet and bashful ways to Dorothy Myers.

Florence Harrington bequeaths her winning way with the boys to Rose Norton.

On solemn promise that it will be used to good advantage, the Seniors leave their dignity to Mr. McGregor.

To Miss Hovey the Seniors leave their appreciation of her willingness to serve us.

To Coach Harris we leave our sincere appreciation for having produced a football team that was able to "clean up" East High's team.

Dorothy Smith leaves as an example to Mary Gibson her sisterly affection for her brother.

To Temad Willey we leave Lillian Robinson's gracefulness on the dance floor.

To Miss Hanger the Seniors leave the opportunity of picking up all dishes broken in the cafeteria in the future.

To the High School in general the Seniors leave their bank book with the understanding that the account will not be overdrawn.

LASTLY: WE DO NOMINATE AND APPOINT THE JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL EXECUTORS OF THIS, OUR LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, WE HEREUNTO SET OUR HANDS AND SEAL AND PUBLISH AND DECLARE THIS TO BE OUR LAST WILL, THIS 3RD DAY OF JUNE, 1924.

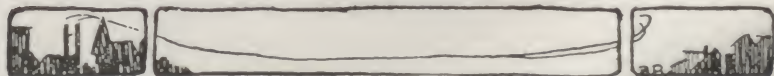

SIGNED, SEALED, PUBLISHED AND DECLARED BY SAID CLASS OF '24, AS AND FOR THEIR LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT IN PRESENCE OF US, WHO IN THEIR PRESENCE AND AT THEIR REQUEST AND IN THE PRESENCE OF EACH OTHER, HAVING SUBSCRIBED OUR NAMES AS WITNESSES.

The Senior Play

The Class of June, 1924, presented as its play "Wappin' Wharf" on April 25. "Wappin' Wharf" was a play of dreadful pirates, but because of its unusual plot was very successful.

The cast was very well selected and each one did his part exceptionally well. The chronicle presentation by Dorothy Slinker was perfect.

Milton Cohen, as the "Old Duke", did very well hobbing around on a wooden leg, making love to the Duchess. Maurice Becker, with the patch eye, was fierce to look upon, and gibbets were his only fear. Charles Slye, the captain with the hook hand and gruff voice, made a good pirate leader. Margaret Orebaugh was "leetle Betsy" and was a most charming leading lady. Ronald Linn, the handsome leading man was "Red Joe"; the King of England. Glenn Roy furnished much amusement as "Darlin'", a true cook for the pirate bands. Frances Walker played her part as an old witch exceptionally well and whenever old Meg came on the stage every one gripped his seat a little tighter and prepared for the worst. The sailormen were most attractive in their 1492 costumes.

Everyone who saw the play pronounced it the best in a long time, and no wonder, Mrs. Mattison was the coach!

Dramatic Club

The most outstanding mark of the Dramatic Club this semester has been the building of a small stage and several types of settings for it. Probably every one has examined the lights and workmanship and found them excellent. The study of the Club has been devoted to one act plays. These have been presented in some interesting manner to help make the meetings a success.

Maurice Becker, President; Wanda Johnston, Vice President; Bob Cavanaugh, Secretary-Treasurer; Margaret Orebaugh, Social Chairman; Earl Page, Marshal; Milton Cohen, Property Chairman; and Lauren Furman, Stage Committee Chairman, have all done their best to make the year a successful one.

Junior Dramatic Clubs

Each grade of the Junior School has its own Dramatic Club, independent of any other group.

The seventh grade officers are: President, Alice Jansen; Vice President, Mary Jane Griffiths; Secretary-Treasurer, Mildred Halsey; and Marshal, Jack Sandburg.

The eighth grade officers are: President, Marjorie Mahaffa; Vice President, Bebe Irwin; Secretary-Treasurer, Doris Rogers; Marshal, Max Fry.

The freshman officers are: President, Edward Brownbridge; Vice President, Leo Smith; Secretary-Treasurer, Wendell Schullenberger; Marshal, Lincoln Coate; and Social Chairman, Robert Flick.

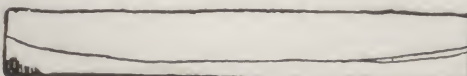

The Freshmen presented the Stuart Walker play "Nevertheless" very successfully. The seventh grade and eighth grade put on "The Pig Prince" which was clever and well presented. Besides the work on plays the Dramatic Clubs have studied pantomimes and written original stories.

A farewell picnic was given not long ago to give a good finish to the year.

Debating Club

The Debating Club has had a small but loyal following this year. The meetings have been very interesting with two debates, parliamentary drill and arguments on vital questions of the day. Featuring the study a mock trial in which Roger Herriott was the prisoner, Mr. Jansen was the judge, and Ronald Linn was the defendant's attorney, was perhaps the most interesting meeting of the semester.

Ronald Linn, President; Bruce Teuber, Vice President; Roger Herriott, Secretary; and Marvin Wright, Marshal; have all been very good officers and have done much to promote the interests of the Debating Club.

French Club

The French Club was just started recently, but it is going so well that it bids fair to be one of the strongest of next year's Literary Societies. The purpose of the club is to promote French literature and authors, and the French language and customs.

Charles Syle is the President of the Club, Dorothy Hutten is Vice President, Wilma Trapp is Secretary, Robert Cavanaugh is Treasurer, Dagna Carlson is Program Chairman, Olive Lenhart is Social Chairman, and Miss Spoor is the Club Adviser.

Dad Elliott Group

The Dad Elliott group was started the afternoon of Mr. Elliott's visit to our school. The purpose of the club is to train the outstanding members of later classes for their responsibilities of leadership. A group of future leaders was picked out to be the charter leaders. Instead of the usual officers an advisory board was elected to lead the group and to write the creed. This creed is to contain a statement of Dad Elliott's ideals and is to be the keynote of the group's work. Dillon Hamilton is acting chairman of the board, and the other members are Tony Cerdaro, George Castle, Burnett Gibson, Paul Horrigan, Bob Streitler and Claude Burnaugh. Mr. Harris is the adviser.

Bible Club

The Bible Club has had a very profitable year under the leadership of Miss Pickrell, club adviser, and Dr. Craig, instructor. The officers have also done much to promote the type of work for which their organization stands. Earl Page was the president, Helen Wymer was vice president and social chairman, Imogene Blackledge was secretary, William Lockhart was treasurer, Ruth Powelson was membership chairman and Isabel Koenneman was program chairman.

The Bible Club, beside having interesting weekly meetings has had two social affairs. The first was a party in the Club Room with games and refreshments. The second was a banquet in the cafeteria followed by a program in the Club Room. This banquet was given on Good Friday.

Radio Club

The aim of the Radio Club is to acquaint the students with the mysteries of Radio. There has been a steady progress this semester toward this end as practically every phase of reception and transmission has been taken up. The successful radio in action the night of the Demonstration School was explained to the spectators.

Harold Sinskey, president; George Cullen, Vice President; Glisan Proper, Secretary; Marion Burgess, Treasurer; and Walter Manatt, Sergeant, have all done their bit to make the Radio Club an active and pleasant club for the members.

W. G. A. A.

Several girls through persistent effort have won the W. G. A. A. honor pin by earning fifty points. Betty Stokely, Eleanor Clark, Mary Jacobson, Mary Ann Matson, Maxine Pickenbrock, Lucile Brown, Gretchen Moorehouse, Mollie Lazar, and Thelma Eldridge, have received them.

Several social affairs have been given, a splash party, a valentine's party, and a strawberry breakfast. A contest was carried out at the beginning of the semester. The sides were called Maggie and Jiggs, but unlike the cartoon by that name, the Jiggs' won.

OFFICERS

Eleanor Clark, President; Mary Jacobson, Vice President, and Gretchen Moorhouse, Secretary-Treasurer have all been very successful and have done much to increase the popularity of the W. A. G. A.

Science Club

The Science Club although it is little known, has been going ahead and doing very worth while work. At their weekly meetings the boys either have reports on scientific subjects or investigate apparatus. No one has, as yet, discovered an element but they have hopes. Who can tell but what one of the boys learning his fundamentals of science here may some day startle the world by his researches.

Frederick Craig is the president; Robert McClary is secretary-treasurer and Mr. Goodell is the club adviser.

Pythagorean

The Math. Club had as its officers this year William Lockhart, President; Roland Gibson, Vice President, and Maurice Becker, Secretary-Treasurer. Miss Drake has ably served as adviser.

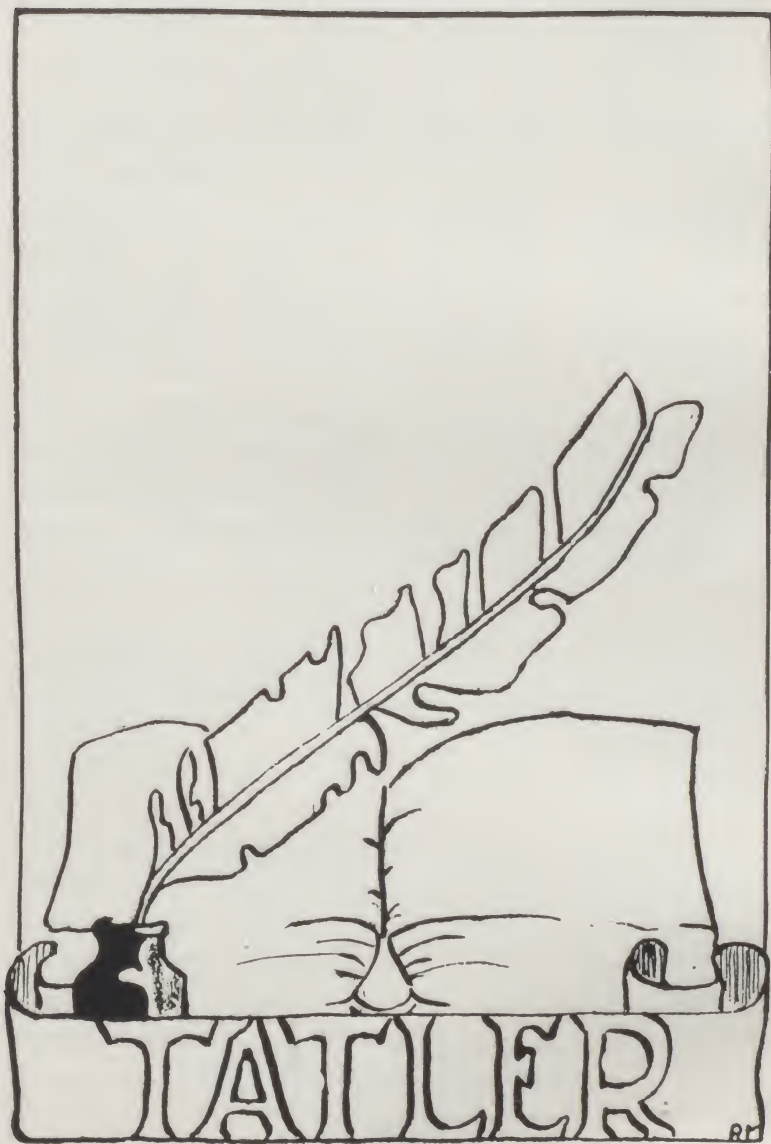

Programs consisting of reports on the history of mathematics and the discussion of various mathematical problems have made the meetings interesting and educational. The Club hopes to have a larger membership next year.

Junior Y. M. C. A.

The officers of the Junior Y. M. C. A. are President, Edward Brownbridge; Vice President, Harold McKinney; and Secretary-Treasurer, Vant Kuebker.

Very interesting and educational programs have been presented with talks on physical culture, science, character building, and good habits. Mr. Abbot, who is club advisor, has been an excellent supervisor for the boys and has done much to make the semester an interesting one for them.

West Ties With East For Second in Basketball

After running neck and neck with North High for the City Basketball Championship, West lost out by one game, tying East for second place. Tony Cordaro received a broken shoulder in the last game with North. This was our only injury of the season.

The teams this year were very evenly matched with no one team showing much more strength than another.

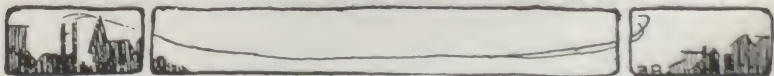

Teams A and C were under the instruction of Coach Harris while teams B and D were guided by Mr. Morgenthaler's guiding hand.

North High's A and B teams went through the entire season without losing a single game. Our C team went through the season with only one defeat and that by only a small score.

CITY TRACK MEET

West and East Tie For First Place

The lead see-sawed back and forth between East High and West High until the last event, the pole vault. We were leading by nine points with only one event to be finished. East High's men had to win the first three places in order to even tie for first place. At the finish of this event the Scarlet and Black men had won the required places and the meet was tied by our representative who got fourth place.

Smith won individual honors by having a total of eleven points to his credit, while Streitler and Voss tied for second honors with a score of ten points.

Three records were broken and one tied in this meet. The discus record was broken by a throw of 113 feet, 2 inches, the high jump record was broken by a jump of 5ft. 4½ inches, the record for the broad jump was broken by a leap of 20 ft. 7¾ inches. Bob Streitler tied the record for the 100-yard dash when he stepped the distance in 10 3-5 seconds.

WEST GETS SECOND IN AMES MEET

Loses Only To Cedar Rapids

West High's inexperienced track team proved themselves worthy of their school when they won second place against a fast field. Cedar Rapids won first honors when its experienced team accumulated 74 points. West High was next with 36 points. Carroll was third with 13 points, while Marshalltown and Belmond tied for fourth.

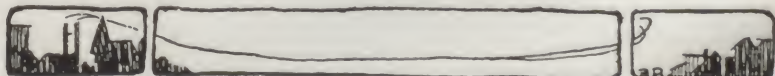

Cuhel of Cedar Rapids, was easily high point winner when he captured four first places. Glenn Voss was second high honor man with two firsts.

Although the day was cold and rainy, several records were broken. Those broken were: Shot put, 220-yard low hurdles. Cuhel of Cedar Rapids, tied two records in the 120-yard hurdles and in the 220-yard dash. Glenn Voss heaved the shot 42 ft. 11¾ inches for the shot put record, which was formerly held by Voss of Eldora. Glenn received two cups for his work Saturday. He received one cup for second high point winner and one for breaking the shot record.

The field events seem to be West's best bets because they won eighteen points in the morning. This work was accomplished by three men, Voss, Smith and Wall, while in the afternoon it took the rest of the team to get the other eighteen points.

Bob Streitler won two seconds in the dashes and Smith won first in the broad jump by leaping a distance of 20 ft. 7½ inches. The climax of the meet was the one-half mile relay race. ## IOWA CITY MEET

This meet was the fastest that West High has ever competed in because there were more records broken at this meet than at any other meet in the United States. The meet was beyond question a huge success and showed that the track men of Iowa are as good as the track men of any other state. The meet compares well with the college meet held at Ames the same day. The 100 yard dash was run in the same time at both places. Brookins ran the low hurdles in world record time at Ames while Cuhel ran the sticks just a second and three-tenths slower. Cuhel also ran the high hurdles in fifteen and three-tenths seconds, just one-tenth of a second slower than the colleges ran it.

Cedar Rapids easily won the meet with a total of 41 points. Colfax and Winfield had a hard fight for second place but Colfax was finally awarded second with 19 points. West High was tenth with 8 points while East High was the only Des Moines school near us and they had two points. Roosevelt had a total of one point.

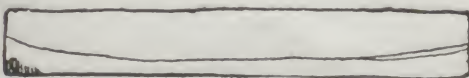

The West High lads showed up well, but as Coach Harris put it, they were in just too fast company. Voss was our star performer with a fourth in the shot and a second in the discus. Voss certainly can be commended on his fine showing as he had to compete with the best in the state. Don Smith got fourth in the broad jump with a leap of over twenty-one feet. Wall threw the discus a hundred and thirteen feet for a fourth in that event. Our half mile relay team gave Cedar Rapids a hard fight for second place. Colfax upset the dope by winning the half mile relay in record time.

Cuhel of Cedar Rapids was high point winner with sixteen points. He broke the national interscholastic school record in the high and low hurdles and tied the state record for the hundred yard dash.

The summary of the meet is as follows:

120-yard high hurdles—Cuhel (Cedar Rapids) first, Geneva (Albia) second, Allison (Davenport) third, Soultz (Clarinda) fourth. Time, :15 3-10 (new national interscholastic record).

One mile run—Elliott (Iowa City) first, Hunn (Davenport) second, Uridil (Cedar Rapids) third, Murray (Cedar Rapids) fourth. Time, 4:38 5-10.

One mile relay—Mason City (Lillard, Tracy, Morton, Baird) first, Winfield second, Burlington third. (Cedar Rapids was disqualified because of Loftus cutting in on Baird in the last lap. No fourth place was given nor was any time announced).

High Jump—Svacek (Grant, Cedar Rapids) first, Hanna (Cedar Rapids) second, Vincent (Ottumwa) third, Mann (Council Bluffs) and Brunk (Roosevelt) tied for third. Height, 5 feet 10 inches.

Tennis

The tennis teams this year made a very good showing considering the amount of practice they were able to get in. Our team entered the Grinnell Interscholastic meet and participated in a dual meet with each of the other schools of the city.

The team was made up of Robert Cavanaugh, Roger Herriott, Harold Dean, Maurice Becker and Don Smith. The two doubles teams, Cavanaugh and Herriott, and Dean and Becker, and the singles players, Dean and Cavanaugh, gave their opponents real matches and were a credit to the school. Coach Morgenthaler will have a good bunch of men back next year and then hopes to win the city tournament once more.

1924 Golf Season

The outstanding feature of this year's golf at West High has been the effort of the inexperienced team mates of Cap'tain Fac Riddell to give him all the support possible. Credit in this regard is due to Don Hood, Wilfred Raridon, Gordon Thompson, and Claude Bradley. Although the team did not win either the Grinnell meet or the city championship, as last year's team did, this was probably due to the superior playing of the other Des Moines schools, and to the fact that West had but four or five men to enter in all of the city contests where eight men were scored, and thus had lost from three to four matches by default before the contest commenced. Much is to be hoped of the boys of this year's team in the future.

Captain Fac Riddell again scored low medal in the Grinnell meet with a well played 86. Craig McKee of East High, tied that score, and five days later in the East-West contest, Riddell led McKee by seven strokes medal play and defeated him in match play 4 and 3. In the final match against North High Riddell defeated the leader of the North High team, Harold Kauffman, by a score of 5 and 4, and scored 75 medal score on the Waveland course, the lowest score ever played in the city high school meets. West High golf as other school activities is sure to feel the loss of this fine golfer and true sportsman.

"Absolute knowledge have I none,
But my aunt's washerwoman's sister's son
Heard a policeman on his beat
Say to a laborer on the street
That he had a letter just last week—
A letter which he did not seek—
From a Chinese merchant in Timbuctoo
Who said that his brother in Cuba knew
Of an Indian chief in a Texas town
Who got the dope from a circus clown
That a man in the Klondike had it straight
From a guy in a South American State
That a wild man over in Borneo
Was told by a woman who claimed to know
Of a well-known society rake
